

I'm not robot!

Argussian reach reputation.

Community General Discussion I've never leveled an alliance character through Bfa yet, and I wanna try out a void elf, generally how long does it take nowadays to get exalted with a 120 character if I'm just a hair away from revered? It's not horrible. It's just stupid that as a new player you have to get Legion WQ open, then Legionfall, then Argus. after you level a 110, but 120 with 1350+ preferred so you can easily solo the rares and Antoran Wastes and MacAree stuff. Then, and only then, shall you be allowed to start a new toon as Void Elf. 2 Likes Argus rep is largely dependent on dailies. Don't quote me but I would say between 2-3 weeks at least. 2 Likes It's maybe two to three weeks. Less if you can get an emissary for AR, or some BoA WQ that give AR rep, that you can do on any 120 and then mail the tokens over. Soling the dungeon on MacAree when that WQ is up is also a nice boon. I don't think it will take to long if you remain diligent on it. World quest week starts this Tuesday so that will be a nice boost for you. I believe your class hall table has a chance to give you missions that reward rep for them so keep an eye on that as well. The weekly quests given by illidan and Ty...shiny dude also give rep for both argus reps. Collect crystals from chests / rares Do 3 Invasions Okay cool that doesn't seem too terrible...I have a 360 shaman that's almost revered with argussian so hopefully that'll make the content more of a breeze Thanks for the quick reply's everyone! The Argus reps were surprisingly not painful. You do the quest line for the 3 zones and then the WQs. Plus table missions at that point reward rep tokens. I got exalted with both factions there in about 3 weeks at a leisurely pace. You don't have to complete legionfall if I remember correctly. There should get a quest that takes you directly to Argus. You might not even have to complete any of legion besides the intro stuff. I think you can bypass all of it. If you have done it before yes you can skip it, but you have to be eligible for "I have seen this story before". Regardless back when 110 boosts came out in Argus you had to open Broken Shore before the Argus unlock quest chain was offered similar to how you have to unlock Nazjatar and the Heart Forge before you can do anything in 8.3. I usually cheesed the rep with an army of alts and just sent the rep tokens from dailies to a single character. Probably why we don't have those rep tokens in BfA. 2 Likes Also check for Army of Light emissaries, if you do the WQs to kill named mobs, those will give Argussian rep too, even if the WQs are marked Army of Light. Goboom: how long does it take nowadays to get exalted with a 120 character if I'm just a hair away from revered? About 15 minutes, well not literally. It is really fast, though, with Argussian possibly on the mission board/as WQ's on the zone map there, plus the overlap they eventually put in of Argus WQ's rep. Yeah, the weeklies. OH a HAIR AWAY from revered; I read that as "halfway through revered", for some reason Yeah figure 3 weeks or less? We noticed you have an adblocker enabled. That's cool. We do too. When the Burning Legion conquered Argus, the eredar, led by Prophet Velen and the naaru fled to Azeroth. However, several eredar remained behind, vowing to continue fighting the Burning Legion. Having defeated Gul'dan at Nighthold, the heroes of Azeroth return to Argus to take the fight to Sargeras. There, they encounter the Argussian Reach, a band of eredar that have dedicated their lives to battling the Burning Legion. Finding and killing a rare elite anywhere on Argus will reward a small reputation increase. New to Legion are the concept of world quests. There is no limit on the number of world quests that can be done per day. When world quests expire, new world quests take their place. There are three separate seat of the triumvirate quests that reward 250 reputation points each. The Argussian Reach Insignia is a reward for certain class hall missions. 7th Legion world quests are available after you hit level 120 and complete the quest Uniting Kul Tiras. 7th Legion world quests are any world quest that is completed on Zandalari. You can complete any number of 7th Legion world quests each day. Each world quest has a timer indicating how long it is available. Once it expires, a new world quest will take its place, whether it has been completed or not. There are two weekly quests that are worth 1000 reputation points each. These can be completed once per week. One quest requires you to collect pristine argunite. The other requires you to complete three invasion points. Greater Argussian Reach Insignia can be found as a bonus reward for having more than 100% chance to complete an appropriate class hall mission. The Demon's Soulstone is a rare drop from elites found on Argus. Using this item will grant 1000 reputation points to ALL Legion factions. When the Argussian Reach Emissary Quest is available, complete four Argussian Reach world quests within the allotted time (generally 2 days). Doing so will allow you to turn in the quest to Toraan the Revered located on the Vindicaar. A new emissary quest is available each day. Argussian Reach is a reputation added to 7.3 in Legion. It is a neutral reputation located at Argus. Reaching Exalted with this faction is required to unlock Void Elf Allied race. Rewards Quartermaster of Argussian Reach is Toraan the Revered and can be found in Argus after completing Argus opening scenario. Friendly Honored Revered Exalted Paragon Rewards a chest containing items every 10,000 reputations earned, after reaching exalted. How to get reputation Quick MODE Doing Chapter Quests Doing World Quests Emissary Weekly Quest Order Hall Missions Detailed MODE Quests & Emissary Argussian Reach and Argus were both added in Patch 7.3 of Legion. Argussian Reach is like other factions of Legion, in terms of gaining reputation. You need to unlock this Faction and Argus by doing the opening quests of Argus. The intro quest will pop up once your character is in Dalaran. World Quests will be the main source of reputation with Argussian Reach. Although Quests on Argus also award you with reputation, but they are not noticeable and you should do them anyways. Argussian Reach World Quests can be found in zones of Argus, Krokuun, and Mac'Are'e. Argus has 2 Weekly Quest that awards reputation with both factions of Argus. These Weekly Quests awards 1,000 reputation with Argussian Reach and Armies of the Light. Fuel of a Doomed World requires you to collect 50 Pristine Argunite which can be earned by doing several activities in Argus. Invasion Onslaught Requires you to complete 3 normal Legion Invasions in Argus. You can also acquire Argussian Reach Insignia from Order hall missions, this item will grant 250 reputation. As a bonus reward of these missions, you can get Greater Argussian Reach Insignia which grants 750 reputation. Enhancements You can read other factions reputation guide from here. Molti lottarono per opporsi alla conquista di Argus da parte della Legione Infuocata, ma non tutti riuscirono a fuggire. Incoraggiati dall'arrivo di nuovi alleati, i rifugiati e gli emarginati hanno unito le loro forze per riprendersi la propria casa. Last updated on Sep 08, 2017 at 05:55 by Stan 4 comments Although many struggled to oppose the Burning Legion's conquest of Argus, not all were able to escape. Emboldened by the arrival of new allies, these refugees and outcasts stand united in their mission to reclaim their home. 1. Introduction Argussian Reach is a new faction added in Patch 7.3 comprised of refugees and outcasts of Argus. This guide will help you to learn more about how to acquire reputation and gain access to various vanity items, mounts, pets and more. 2. Patch 7.3 Reputation Catch-Up We found two Bind-to-Account items that help with catching up on reputation with the Broken Isles and Argus factions. Sources remain unknown for now. Nathrezim Tome of Manipulation is a tome that increases reputation gain with factions of the Broken Isles by 200% for 2 hours. The item is intended for alts and cannot be used above level 109. It drops from Vagath the Betrayed in Krokuun (61, 20). Demon's Soulstone is another item that increases reputation with the factions of the Broken Isles and Argus by 1,000. The item can only be used on Argus. It is especially useful for fresh alts that need to catch up on reputation with the Nightfallen. The item has a small chance to drop from Argus rare elites. 3. Quests and Reputation Advancement In this section, you will find out how to increase your reputation standing with the Argussian Reach faction. Most of the reputation is gained from completing Argus world quests, Argus missions, and weekly quests. 3.1. Argus Story Chapters Some Argussian Reach quests in Mac'Are'e reward 75 reputation (e.g. A Non-Prophet Organization), but their main purpose is to unlock access to world quests. 3.2. World Quests The most efficient way to increase your reputation standing with Argussian Reach is by completing world quests. Each Argussian Reach world quest will increase your reputation standing by 75. To be granted access to Argussian Reach world quests, you must first complete portions of the Argus story (separately for each zone). Argussian Reach world quests are specific to Krokuun and Mac'Are'e. You will not find them in Antoran Wastes. Do not forget to ride the carousel for the WHEE! buff whenever the Darkmoon Faire is up, before doing world quests. We encourage you to download the World Quests Group Finder addon for faster and efficient completing of world quests. Joining a group of players that are on the same quest is only a few clicks away thanks to the addon. Completing four Argussian Reach world quests when the Argussian Reach emissary quest is up grants: Click here for a full list of quests that award reputation with Argussian Reach. 3.3. Argus Missions & Reputation Insignias To unlock Argus missions and followers (Krokuun Equipment) you must first complete the Remnants of Darkfall Ridge quest, which is a 16-hour mission. The Scouting Table can be found aboard the Vindicaar, downstairs at 69, 54. There is no need to return to your Order Hall to begin the mission. Once unlocked, you will be able to complete missions that reward Argussian Reach reputation insignias. We found the following insignias associated with the Argussian Reach faction: We also found two Bind-to-Account insignias: 3.4. Weekly Quests Besides standard quests, missions and world quests, there are several Argussian Reach weeklies. 4. Reputation Paragon For every 10,000 reputation earned with the Argussian Reach faction beyond Exalted, you will complete the Supplies from the Argussian Reach quest and earn Crumbling Chronicles of Argus (Artifact Power token) and Brittle Krokul Chest. Other rewards have not been confirmed yet. It is worth noting that Elekk mounts obtained from the Army of the Light reputation paragon cache (Gleaming Footlocker) require Revered reputation standing with Argussian Reach: Avenging Felcrusher Blessed Felcrusher Glorious Felcrusher 5. Rewards Toraan the Revered is Argussian Reach's Quartermaster. You can find him aboard the Vindicaar at 68, 56. All items cost gold and require a certain reputation standing. Faction discounts apply. 5.1. Friendly At Friendly, Enchanters can purchase Formula: Chaos Shatter, which allows them to shatter 1 Chaos Crystal into 2 Leylight Shard. Scribes can get Technique: Mass Mill Astral Glory, allowing them to mill multiple Astral Glory at once. Both recipes cost 17 Gold. 5.2. Honored At Honored, Miners can purchase Krokul Mining Pick for 200 Gold to mine faster. The item also works on the Broken Isles. Crystalline Campfire can be bought for 75 Gold and the item's used for cooking. The last item is the Orphaned Marsuul battle pet for 500 Gold. 5.3. Revered At Revered you can buy Krokul Flute that costs 500 Gold. The item will upgrade your Flight Master's Whistle to work on Argus, allowing you to teleport to the nearest Lightforged Beacon. Recipe: Astral Alchemist Stone is a Rank 2 Alchemy recipe that becomes available for 2,000 Gold. Boon of the Steadfast is a shoulder enchant for 200 Gold and with it, you will occasionally loot Argunite Cluster from enemy corpses. The bags contain Veiled Argunite used to purchase new Relinquished gear. 5.3.1. Relinquished Gear Thaumaturge Vashreen can be found aboard the Vindicaar at 46, 71 (go downstairs and turn right at the Netherlight Crucible). He has moved from the Broken Shore to Argus and now sells new Relinquished Items for a new currency from world quests called Veiled Argunite. The base item level of Relinquished gear in Patch 7.3 is 910 and each item costs 650 Veiled Argunite. With the arrival of the Netherlight Crucible, you can now purchase tokens and target specific Relic types. Blizzard confirmed that 7.3 Relinquished tokens can create Legendary items and Tomb of Sargeras gear. Below is a list of all items sold by Thaumaturge Vashreen. 5.4. Exalted When you reach Exalted, you can buy 6 Argussian Talbuk mounts, Alchemy Rank 3 recipes, and the faction tabard. 5.4.1. Mounts Each Talbuk mount costs 10,000 Gold. 5.4.2. Recipes The following Rank 3 Alchemy recipes are purchasable for 3,000 Gold each. Recipe: Astral Alchemist Stone Recipe: Astral Healing Potion 5.4.3. Tabard The tabard you can purchase is Argussian Reach Tabard. 6. Item Pricing Here is a list of all items sold by the Argussian Reach Quartermaster, sorted by reputation standing. Item prices at Neutral with Argussian Reach are as follows: 7. Achievements Protector of the Argussian Reach is rewarded once you reach Exalted status with Argussian Reach. The achievement is mandatory for Paragon of Argus, which will earn you the Lightbringer title. 8. Changelog 09 Sep. 2017: Added sources of reputation catch-up items. 30 Aug. 2017: Removed Grimoire of Lost Knowledge from Vashreen. Added more information about Relinquished tokens. 27 Aug. 2017: Added World Quests Group Finder to recommendations. Added more details about reputation insignias. 22 Aug. 2017: Removed Rebellious Imp from Reputation Paragon rewards. 15 Aug. 2017: Guide added. + show all entries - show only first 2 entries Need any help?
